Important Notes for applicants

1. Entry Requirements:

Every applicant for registration must provide evidence acceptable to the Institute that he/she: has obtained qualifications of either a recognised degree or a recognised professional qualification.

Every applicant for registration must be recommended as fit and proper for admission to the Institute by a member of the HKICS and/or ICSA; the immediate supervisor of the applicant's company; a full member of another professional body; academic of a recognised university or college.

The decision of the Institute on all applications shall be final.

2. Deadlines for student registration

Applications can be submitted at anytime. However, if the applicant wishes to sit for upcoming examinations, the following dates must be observed:

- 31st January for applicants wishing to sit for the following June examinations; or
- 31st July for applicants wishing to sit for the following December examinations

An administrative charge of HK$650 will be applied on studentship registration submitted within the following specific periods stated below for taking corresponding examinations in June and December:

Studentship registration	Examination diet
1 to 15 February	June examination
1 to 15 August	December examination

3. Student's status

Registering as a student confers no rights of membership or voting rights. You will be described as a Registered Student of the Institute, but not as a student member. There are no designatory letters for registered students of the Institute.

4. Supporting document for student registration application

i) Registration IN PERSON

All applications MUST have supporting documentary evidence of academic achievements. If applicants submit the registration form IN PERSON, original and photocopies of all relevant official transcripts and educational/professional certificates in support of your application must be submitted for inspection and verification by the Institute.

ii) Registration BY POST

This will also be accepted only if a copy of the applicant's HK Identity Card/PRC Identity Card is enclosed. Copies of documents enclosed MUST be certified by any one of the following persons:

- Associate or Fellow members of HKICS/ICSA
- Government District Officer (through statutory declaration)
- Hong Kong legal practitioners
- Practicing CPAs

5. Re-registration

A student whose registration was removed or withdrawn may apply for reinstatement of their original registration or new registration as a new student. The Institute may, in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, approve or decline such application.

Re-instatement of a student's original registration and all his/her examination results and approved exemptions at the time of the student's removal/ withdrawal shall normally be granted.

Applications for new registration from students whose de-registration period is more than 3 years shall normally be granted. But students' past examination results and previously approved exemptions will not be reinstated in such circumstances.

6. Rules and regulations applicable to collaborative course students

All CCA students are required to register (or re-register) with HKICS as students within a period of 3 months after they enrolled in the programmes. The Institute reserves the right to decline their studentship registration application if they fail to meet with the required deadline. CCA students who do not register with the Institute as students within the designated period (i.e. 3 months after they have enrolled into the programmes) are subject to a penalty of HK$450 per month if they want to register with the Institute during the course of study.

CCA students MUST maintain your studentship with the Institute during your course of study (with a minimum period of 1.5 years) for your applications of full exemptions.

7. Exemption Application

Students should apply for exemptions based on the relevant qualifications (i.e. Accounting, Finance, Law and Management) submitted at the time of registration. For top-up degree holders, exemptions would be assessed according to the subjects taken at both the higher diploma (or equivalent) and the top-degree level. Therefore applicants must submit official transcripts of both the top-up degree and sub-degree programmes for exemption assessment. (e.g. Diploma, Associate degree, Professional Diploma, Advanced Diploma etc.)

8. Further Exemption Application

For any new qualifications acquired subsequent to the studentship registration, students can apply for further exemptions. This application should be made within a period of 6 months upon the award conferred date of acquired qualification(s). Students can download the Further Exemptions Form (EE013) at the Institute's website.

9. IQS Exemption Policy

The Institute maintains an international standard exemption policy. Holders of a recognised university degree and professional qualifications are entitled to apply for exemption from some subjects of the Institute's examinations. The following policy shall apply to exemption applications:

- a. Students are required to apply exemptions immediately upon studentship registration. For any newly acquired qualifications subsequent to the studentship registration, further exemptions should be applied within a 6-month period upon the award of the acquired qualification. Any late submission is subject to a late charge by the Institute.
- b. Maximum exemptions of up to 4 subjects from both Professional Programme Part I and II will be granted to holders of relevant bachelor degrees, post-graduate diplomas, master degrees or professional qualifications (e.g. Accounting, Finance, Law or Management) from recognized universities or professional bodies.
- c. All exemptions granted by the Institute are a concession, not an automatic right, and the Institute reserves the right to withdraw or amend the exemption policy without prior notice.
- d. Exemptions will be granted only upon successful completion of a course; exemptions will not be granted in respect of incomplete qualifications.
- e. A student who has attempted but failed in an Institute examination paper shall not subsequently apply for exemption for that paper. (Note: This shall not apply to the students of the four collaborative courses with the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, City University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Baptist University and the Open University of Hong Kong) (Approved by Education Committee on 1 June 2007)
- f. Unless further and better information is provided, the same qualification will not be used for the purpose of another exemption application.
- g. Exemption Appeal
 - The review of exemption application is based on the information submitted by students and data available. The Institute will consider and assess whether the standard of a qualification is of an equivalent level to the Institute qualifying scheme.
 - Students who applied for an exemption but are not satisfied with the result may appeal.
 - Students should complete an Exemption Appeal Form and submit it with further and better supporting documents to support their claims.
 - First level Exemption Appeal

An applicant not satisfied with the decision may within two months from the date of the notification issued, appeal against the decision.

- Second Level Exemption Appeal

If the applicant concerned is still not satisfied with the decision of the Exemption Sub-Committee, he/she may make a second appeal and submit it in writing to the Secretariat with any supporting documents he/she deemed appropriate. The second appeal must be made within one month from the date of the letter issued to the student concerned regarding the decision of the Exemption Sub-Committee.

- h. Students must provide originals and certified true copies of transcripts, certificates, and diplomas concerned with their exemption applications. Copies must be certified from originals by Institute staff or an official of a Government District Office. Students may be required to request the institutions from which they obtain the qualifications to send information direct to the Institute for assessment. Applications without supporting documents WILL NOT be considered. The appeal application form (EE004) can be downloaded from the Institute's website.
- i. All approved exemptions status will be forfeited if students fail to settle their exemptions fees within a 3-month period from the date of the exemption confirmation notice. Once the exemption status is forfeited, students should submit their academic qualifications to the Secretariat again as well as pay their exemption status.
- j. An administration charge on re-application will be applied to students who do not settle their exemption fees as approved within the due date.
- k. The Institute reserves the right to final approve all exemption applications.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER SUBMITTING REGISTRATION APPLICATION?

10. Acknowledgement of student registration and exemption

The Institute will issue an official payment receipt, a registration confirmation letter, notice to new students and student card within one month from the date of submission of their completed applications.

Students will receive regular correspondences from the Institute via post, SMS or e-mail, e.g. E-update, eCSj.

For students who apply for exemption at the time of registration, they will be notified of their exemption results within two months. All approved exemptions will be forfeited if students fail to settle their exemptions fees within a 3-month period from the date of the exemption confirmation notice. Once the exemption status is forfeited, students should submit their academic qualifications to the Secretariat again for exemption re-application with an administration charge.

11. Correspondence Address

All correspondences will be sent to applicant's home address, SMS and email.

12. Login Password

In order to have better communication with students, the Institute will assign a login password to registered students. Using the login password, students will be able to update their personal details, download the full version of the Student Handbook and check whether the information on the Institute's database is correct. But the real benefit to students will be the proprietary information that will be provided in the student only area. The Institute will keep you informed on developments in this area.

Students will be notified of their login password BY POST within one month from the submission date of registration. In order to enter this area you will need to login with an 'ID No.' and 'password' at the Institute's website: www.hkics.org.hk.

13. Examinations

Registered students are required to enter at least one examination diet within the first two years of registration.

Students are required to compete the examinations within a period of SIX YEARS from the date of first registration. Extensions must be applied in writing before the studentship expires and may be granted on a case-by-case basis.

The examinations are held twice a year in June and December. The actual dates of the examinations are published on the Institute's website and monthly journal. There is no restriction on the number of examinations you can sit per sitting as long as there is no timetable clash. Students who wish to enter for the examinations are required to download the examination entry form on the Institute's website at www.hkics.org.hk and submit to the Institute before examination entry deadline (i.e. last working day of March for June exam and last working day of September for December exam.).

14. HKU SPACE IQS examinations preparatory courses

The Institute has endorsed HKU SPACE to organize the IQS examination preparatory courses. These courses aim at assisting students for the IQS examinations preparation. The following subjects will be offered: Hong Kong Financial Accounting; Hong Kong Corporate Law; Hong Kong Taxation; Strategic and Operations Management; Corporate Governance; Corporate Administration; Corporate Secretaryship and Corporate Financial Management. One assignment and one take home mock examination are designed for students in tackling examination. Each subject is of 36 contact hours except Hong Kong Corporate Law, which is 45 hours.

For details of the IQS Examinations Preparatory Courses, please contact:
