ESG – A Good Idea; What Could Possibly Go Wrong?

18 January 2019

Presenter:

Mr Hendrik Rosenthal

Mr Hendrik Rosenthal is Director, Group Sustainability of CLP Power Hong Kong Limited. He is responsible for the CLP Group's sustainability-related strategy, reporting and communications. He supports the senior management in sustainability and climate change-related risk management and advises on sustainability matters of the Group's power business in the Asia-Pacific region.

With 20 years of experience in environmental management across the public, private and NGO sectors, Hendrik previously led research and consulting projects in Canada, Hong Kong and Singapore.

He began his career in natural resource management and environmental policy, through various positions at Canadian government agencies in environment and development. After moving to Hong Kong in 2008, Hendrik promoted sustainability practices via private sector projects and through policy engagement for industry associations. Prior to joining CLP, he was a senior manager of applied sustainability at a multinational company, responsible for implementing corporate sustainability strategy in the nutrition and health business and providing sustainability advisory services for key customers in Asia Pacific.

Hendrik holds a Bachelor of Social Sciences (magna cum laude) degree from the University of Ottawa and a Master of Environmental Studies degree from the University of Waterloo in Canada.
